Holding Fee Contract

When we agree to hold an opening, we give up the right to fill that position and to receive tuition from that position. For this reason, a non-refundable monthly holding fee is required to hold an opening when a child's start date is more than three weeks away.

This is a contract between _____ and Angel Hugs Early Learning LLC. The above parents agree to pay $400.00 a month to Angel Hugs Early Learning LLC (payable to: Sarah Hewitt) to hold a space for _____. This holding fee is non-refundable and guarantees a space for the said above child at this facility starting on _____. This holding fee is implemented for holds greater than 3 weeks away.

Your monthly holding fee will start on _____ Your monthly holding fee will be due the first of every month.

Payment for the first week of childcare is due the Friday before care begins, which is _____.

Failure to pay this monthly holding fee will void this contract, which will relinquish your child's space at the said start date in this facility with no refunds on prior payments.
